

When Community Bankers Speak...Washington Listens!

As the nation's voice for community banks, ICBA makes sure that our concerns and views are heard by lawmakers on Capitol Hill. Fighting on behalf of thousands of community banks like ours, ICBA rigorously pursues opportunities to educate Congress and regulators about what matters most to us—protecting the community banking industry!

Main Street, not Wall Street

ICBPAC is the only federal PAC exclusively dedicated to protecting and promoting the community banking industry. The collective support of community bankers ensures ICBPAC has the resources needed to back the election of legislators and candidates for Congress who understand that community banks are critical to the prosperity of Main Street.

Invest in ICBPAC

Sitting on the sidelines is a mistake that community bankers cannot afford to make. Supporting ICBPAC with a personal contribution is an investment in the future of community banking as we continue to face a challenging exam environment, an ever-growing regulatory burden, and efforts to expand tax-exempt credit union lending authority. The power of our voice lies in the participation of all...together, we can make sure community bankers are heard loud and clear!
